

£1,800 raised at Clarke Willmott Ghostly Quiz!

On Halloween night 2009, Clarke Willmott LLP hosted a quiz night at the Rectory bar in the Jewellery Quarter, Birmingham, to raise funds for the Birmingham & Black Country Community Foundation.

Following a close run contest between 15 companies from across the city and a dispute over when the Queen actually became the Queen, the team from Knight Frank were crowned victorious with Clarke Willmott and Deloitte coming in joint 2nd place.
