

Sunday 18th October
Adrian Boult Hall
Birmingham

Heroic Symphony

Performed by the Birmingham Philharmonic Orchestra

Works:

Rossini Overture, The Silken Ladder
Mozart Sinfonia Concertante for
Oboe, Clarinet, Horn and Bassoon
Beethoven Symphony No 3
("Eroica")

Conductor:

Marco Romano

Soloists: Anne Hagyard, Alastair Moseley,
Martyn Jones, Michael Syrett

A truly revolutionary symphony to open a new season - Beethoven's intended tribute to Napoleon Bonaparte, finally dedicated "to the memory of a great man". Mozart's concertante work shows his love of writing for wind instruments, and Rossini's brilliant overture has all the wit and sparkle that we recognise from this master of opera.

Ticket details:

Adrian Boult Hall, Birmingham 7.30pm

Unreserved seats: £13.00

Concessions: £10.00

Students and children: £8.00

Available from: Oxboffice (www.oxboffice.com)

Telephone 0845 680 1926 or on the door from 19.00 of the evening of the concert or from orchestra members.

For more information or to buy tickets online visit www.bpo.org.uk

