

Sunday 26th
April 2009

Symphony Hall
Birmingham, 7pm

THE ENVIRONMENT PROM

Performed by the Birmingham Philharmonic Orchestra.
With the City of Birmingham Choir and guests.

BPO goes green! Enjoy mountains, sunrises, rainstorms and soaring larks - feel the ground tremble in Respighi's Pines of Rome and hear what the "Ballads For a Living Planet" has to say!

Have flags to hand for the traditional prom favourites and join us to celebrate our "Green and Pleasant Land".

Conductor:
Michael Lloyd

Violin Soloist:
Anna Ovsyanikova

Concert promoted by the Chartered Institution of Water and Environmental Management (CIWEM) and the Birmingham Community Foundation.

Raising money for CIWEM and the Birmingham Community Foundation

CIWEM is an independent professional body and a registered charity, advancing the science and practice of water and environmental management for a clean, green and sustainable world.

programme

Mussorgsky	Night on Bare Mountain
Grofé	Sunrise, On the Trail, Rainstorm (Grand Canyon Suite)
Respighi	Pines of Rome
Vaughan Williams	The Lark Ascending
Barnet	Ballads For a Living Planet
Falla	Ritual Fire Dance
H Wood	British Sea Songs
Elgar	Pomp & Circumstance March No. 1
Parry	Jerusalem
J Strauss II	Thunder and Lightning Polka

tickets

Tickets: £8.50; £12.00; £15.00; £17.50; £20.00
selected family discounts and concession prices available on application

Symphony Hall Box Office
Telephone 0121 780 3333
www.thsh.co.uk